Limoneira and Suntreat Advance Their Alliance to the Next Level

SANTA PAULA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Limoneira Company (NASDAQ: LMNR), a leading agribusiness with prime agricultural land and operations, real estate and water rights throughout California, Arizona, and Chile, and Suntreat, part of the AC Foods family, a leading citrus sales, marketing and packing organization, have announced further go-to-market strategic initiatives.

"Limoneira and Suntreat have worked together for a number of years and elevating our alliance made sense," said Alex Teague, Limoneira Chief Operating Officer. Throughout their 60-year history, Suntreat has grown, packed and sold California's finest citrus including lemons, oranges and specialty varieties. They are located throughout the San Joaquin Valley.

"Suntreat is in a high growth mode and even with our increasing acreage we are running to meet the needs of our customers," said Darren Filkins, Suntreat President. "Our companies have complementary strengths and this alliance enables us to continue to be the preferred partner for our customers with citrus. Just as important, it will enable both entities to realize strategic goals even more quickly."

John Carter, Limoneira Director of Global Sales, stated, "Furthering our business collaboration with Suntreat will enable us to build on our One World of Citrus™ model and increase our volumes to North American and International markets. Our goal is to be everything citrus to our global customer base and provide best-in-class quality and consistency. We'll get them the varieties they want whenever and wherever they want them."
